

Father-Son Unit

Recruitment into Fatherhood-Family Initiative

(Prince Hall Masons, churches, other community groups)

Home Team Sports Club

(Registration, interviews, data collection, pictures)

Father-Son Bonding

Other Father-Son Activities

Address Social Needs

(Jobs, parenting, counseling, legal aid, etc.)

Partnerships
Referrals
Masonic Volunteers

Strengthen Families

Gang resistance, reduce crime, violence, unwed pregnancies, etc.

Some Features of the Fatherhood-Family Initiative

- Serve greater Omaha area (Blacks, Latinos, Whites)
- Keys to success
 - Sharply focused to address core societal challenge of our time
 - Start small
 - What you do, do well
- Establish benchmarks and on-going evaluation
- Pilot project
 - Staff person
 - Develop budget, contacts, funding; Further define and refine methodology
- Short start-up time
- Low cost/potential high reward
- Possible national model